

DAYCAMPER OF THE WEEK

Phoebe Quemuel Jones

Brother: Phoebe loves her big brother Leo. They are like peas in a pod, always hanging out together. Phoebe loves to wrestle and play with her brother and also curl up for naps together too.

Personality: Phoebe is a happy and laid back girl. She gets along well with all the other campers because of her sweet personality. She prefers hanging out and relaxing to being the center of attention, but she still enjoys playing and having fun.

Hobby: Miss Phoebe is an avid squirrel watcher. There can be lots of other activity around her, but nothing will break her concentration on that squirrel!
